Our Experience

Engagement

SKP was engaged by a manufacturer of oleo-chemicals and personal care products to identify the root cause for the contract manufacturing company making losses.

Our Solution

- Financial analytical review
- Physical stock verification, comparison with logical stock and reconciliation of the variances
- Material yield and overhead variances between standard and actual
- Master including bill of material master verification
- Inventory movement analysis and verification of various cost records

Value Delivered

- SKP assisted the company in identifying the reason for losses
- Provided recommendations to overcome losses
- Provided input to company to renegotiate the pricing with its contractors to recover losses
- Provided various input on matters to make processes and accounting efficient and effective.

Engagement

SKP has been providing outsourced Finance Officer Services for entities registered in the Dubai International Financial Centre (DIFC) under Dubai Financial Services Authority (DFSA) regulations over the last two years.

Value Delivered

- Complied with applicable rules with a specific focus on maintaining adequate capital as per the rules defined
- Filed capital adequacy returns
- Broad review of financials, comparison with budgets and understand the variances
- Liaised with the regulator where required
- Supported clients during risk assessments by the regulator.

Engagement

SKP was appointed by a European company to conduct financial due diligence on an Abu Dhabi-based target company having presence in the Middle East and India into non-destructive testing (NDT) services for the oil and gas industry.

Our Findings

- Performed adjustments to revenues for non-operating income concerning sales of assets, dividends received, interests, etc.
- Found an increase in direct expenses for assets purchased as expenses, while they should have been capitalised.
- Undervalued inventory in earlier years. The necessary addition was made to show the correct value of inventory for FY 2009 and 2010.
- Fictitious purchase and expense bills were debited in the books with the sole objective of removing profits from the business. These were paid for in a cash-management adjustment.
- Cash flows did not show the true picture due to the lower inventory valuation in earlier years and cash withdrawals done by the management through fictitious purchase and expense bills.
- Entity in India used to take loans and there were chances that the Indian tax authorities could treat this as income exposing the Indian entity to tax liabilities.
